The Burns Supper celebrates, in words and music, the immortal memory of Robert Burns and Scotland's heritage.

The first recorded Burns celebration was held in 1801, when a group of his good friends gathered – and so was born the legendary “Burns Supper”.

One of the evening's features is “Piping in The Haggis”. With full fanfare, the piper announces the arrival of the Haggis, leading a procession comprising the chef, the orator and the whisky bearers to present the Haggis. After circling the room in order that all assembled guests may see the magnificent Haggis, it then is placed in position ready to be “addressed”. Our orator is Kenneth C. Donnelly, who will present a resounding and animated recital of Burns' “Address To A Haggis”. At the appropriate time, during the line “An cut you up wi ready slight”, with a flourish Ken will take his dirk and pierce the Haggis, concluding with “Gie her a Haggis!”.

The evening will begin with a Reception, to include Hendrick's Gin Cocktails and a Whisky Tasting of Bowmore and Glen Garioch Single Malts, presented by David McNicoll, Brand Ambassador for Fine Whiskies at Campari, who will also act as Master of Ceremonies for the evening. Bowmore, of Islay in the Western Isles, is the second oldest distillery in Scotland, and the oldest on Islay. Glen Garioch distillery was founded in 1797 and is situated in the Eastern Highlands in Aberdeenshire, Scotland.

The evening will include musical entertainment from Pipe Major Andy Hamilton of the New York Metro Pipe Band, vocalist Maureen McMullan and Atlantic Seaway; in addition to two terrific raffles with exciting prizes, Scottish Country Dancing and plenty of good company!

Burns is regarded as the national poet of Scotland and is acknowledged by recent public vote to be “The Most Important Scot” by the people of Scotland. Robert Burns was born on January 25th, 1759 and died on July 21st, 1796 at the age of 37.
